CORAM : S.A. BOBDE, J.

August 25, 2005.

P.C.:

1. Admittedly, elections have been held. The dispute in this petition pertains to a direction given by the Co-operative Appellate Court to the society to hold a meeting for electing its representatives to participate in the election of the federal society. This direction is stayed by this Court. The petition has become infructuous in view of the fact that the elections have already been held. The parties shall be at liberty to take such remedies as may be advised, in accordance with law.

2. Disposed of.
